

An Engineer Throws from His Cab While on Duty.

New York, June 23.—Engineer Floyd Pollison, of the Deckertown express, on the New York, Susquehanna and Western railroad, and the one that collide with a trolley car at Paterson the other day, was thrown from his cab yesterday, and for several minutes the train dashed down the grade on the other side of Oakridge without a hand on the engine's throttle or anyone to look ahead for danger.

The grade from Two Bridges down the mountain for twenty miles is very steep, and engineers frequently apply the air brakes to keep their trains under control. While taking this precaution a sharp curve west of Oakridge Pollison became convinced that the brake on the tender of his engine was out of order. He jumped to the floor of the tank, and while leaning far out to peer at the brakes he was struck by the upright post of an automatic time signal. The blow knocked him from his engine and threw him away from the wheels down the bank, twenty-five feet high.

Fireman Michael Collins, Ignorant of the Accident, Continued at His Duties.

The train in the meantime was dashing down the grade at an unusual rate of speed. Everyone of the passengers were in peril without knowing it. When nearing Oakridge one of the train's crew called the attention of Fireman Collins to the fact that Pollison was not in his seat in the cab. The fireman looked around hurriedly, and then, realizing that there must have been an accident, quickly stopped the train. The engineer was found lying beside the track in a dazed condition. The doctors say his injuries are not fatal, but it will be some time before he will be able to resume work.

Guilty of Murdering Her Husband.

GREENVILLE, Tex., June 23.—J. J. Lancaster, a new arrival here, died last Sunday night under peculiar circumstances, nobody being present but his wife. The physicians examining him after his death testified to the fact that he died from poisoning. His wife made conflicting statements at the inquest, and was suspected of having murdered her husband. A report is current that Mrs. J. J. Lancaster is now in Paducah, Ky., and that the woman passing as Mrs. Lancaster here is a woman who induced Lancaster to leave Kentucky. Mrs. Lancaster was locked up in the county jail.

Suicide by Drowning.

BULLINGTON, N. J., June 23.—Marshall R. Smith committed suicide by drowning himself in the Delaware yesterday. He was formerly a Methodist preacher and also a lawyer in New York state, and it is thought that the loss of his fortune and of a capital case in which he was counsel unbalanced his mind. Smith was out boating, and sent a letter to his wife telling her of his intended suicide and of the whereabouts of his boat. A searching party found the boat as anticipated, with Smith's clothes, but the body has not been recovered.

Arkansas River Leaves Its Banks.

WICHITA, Kan., June 23.—Arkansas river broke its banks here last night. A deep swift current is now flowing over Blawell park and the adjoining residence portion of the town. The water is rising rapidly and another two feet will send it sweeping down Main street. The lower floors of many houses are already under water, and people are excitedly loading their property into boats. The farmers have already suffered an immense loss through the destruction of their crops and stock.

A FIREMAN'S TIMELY ACT

He Saves the Life of a Little Tot by Kicking It from the Track.

ELKTON, Md., June 23.—A thrilling experience was that of Engineer Graesson and Fireman Nelson in the Central Division railroad paytrain, which passed through Rising Sun, Cecil county, Md. David Maher's 3-year-old son was on the track the day the paytrain came along and was bewildered when the engineer gave the warning signal. To stop the train in time to avoid fatality was impossible. Fireman Nelson sprang through the lookout window, ran along the footboard and swinging from the pilot table kicked the child in the forehead and knocked it into the ditch along the track. On the return trip the train stopped and the little fellow was found playing in the yard, on his forehead the mark of the fireman's shoe, when he kicked him over and saved his life.

Rival Loves Quarrel.

SULLIVAN, Ind., June 23.—George Corry and Eugene Fry, rivals for the hand of the same girl, met at Alton, Ore. A quarrel and a fight followed, in which Corry shot and killed Fry. Corry escaped. He may be lynched when caught.

Insurgents Again Defeated.

BUENOS AIRES, June 23.—News has been received that the loyal troops in Rio Grand do Sul, Brazil, have defeated the insurgents under General Pina.

Texas' Populist Ticket.

WACO, Tex., June 23.—After an all night session the Populists nominated a complete state ticket, which is as follows: For governor, Judge Nugent; lieutenant governor, Marcon Martin; attorney general, R. S. Bell; treasurer, Henry E. McCullough; commissioner of general land office, E. C. Grant; comptroller, W. E. Moore; and Addison Clark, state superintendent of public instruction.

The American Derby Today.

CHICAGO, June 23.—This afternoon the eleventh American Derby will be run at Washington park. Everything indicates that it will be a great race. The weather promises to be perfect, and the track, while not as fast as it might be, is still in excellent condition. For the first time outside California this year the Australasian saddle cloth system, with its paddock arrangement, will be properly used.

Probably Cut His Wife's Throat.

MOUSE HOLE, N. J., June 23.—The authorities have Charles Minschen, of Clintonsville, in the county jail here, on suspicion of having cut his wife's throat. The wound is a dangerous one. The woman cannot tell how it happened. The prisoner claims the cut was caused by a horse biting the woman. This is improbable because of the nature of the wound.

Owen Garrity and John Lenahan, the committee appointed to solicit aid for the bituminous strikers, were not treated well at the Maple Hill colliery yesterday.

They were ordered off the grounds by a C. & P. police officer. As first they hesitated in leaving, but went under threats of arrest.

A mistake was made yesterday in classifying William Paul as a driver in the report in connection with the Mahanoy City colliery fire. Mr. Paul is a fire boss and one of the most efficient men in the mine. He was the last to leave the place on Wednesday and when he did so supposed everything was all right. He has the reputation of being a very careful man.

At a meeting of the Mahanoy City Fish and Game Protective Association John Minchoff was elected to fill the vacancy in the executive board caused by the death of John A. Latham and the following names were added to the list of membership: G. A. Borchinger, Henry Scheurman, John F. Shoener, W. C. Benschinger, J. E. H. Keest, Harris Evans, Harry A. Watsou, Charles B. Hill and C. W. Fisher.

A party drove from Scheurman's hotel to Barnesville last evening behind C. O. Smith's team and had a very pleasant time. The members of the party were Harry Harris, George Mathias, Richard Coogan, William Seymour, Charles O. Smith, William Hopkins, Owen Farley, John Quinn, Thomas Evans, Charles Stillman and Misses Carrie and Clara Pierman, Lena and Bertha Eicheb, Clara Oswald, Minnie Seunberger, Clara Redington, Mrs. G. O. Smith, Carrie E. Grant and Emily Leitenberger. Delectable music was furnished by the Jones orchestra.

When baby was sick, we gave her Castoria.

When she was a Child, she cried for Castoria.

When she became Miss, she clung to Castoria.

When she had Children, she gave them Castoria.

HE WRITES APPY SONGS.

Charles F. Pidgin, Whose Popular Airs Are Everywhere Sung.

What a tiresome world it would be if there would be no songs in it.

One of the most versatile song writers is Charles F. Pidgin, of Cambridge, Mass., whose portrait is here given.

Everybody knows his songs. School boys whistle them and sober business men go about humming them.

When a writer of popular songs is tired and worn out he cannot do good work—nor can any one. All over the world physicians of every school prescribe

Paine's celery compound where overwork and anxiety has brought down the tone of the nervous system. Prof. Edward E. Phelps, M. D., LL. D., of Dartmouth college, the eminent discoverer of Paine's celery compound, devoted the most fruitful years of his remarkable career to the study of the blood and nerves.

Very soon after taking this remarkable remedy the circulation is favorably affected; there is a marked desire for hearty food, the heart's action becomes tranquilized and strong, and the nervous and digestive systems are harmonized and invigorated and sleeplessness disappears, thus stopping the waste and staying the progress of the disease.

As long as waste continues, disease continues, and the first step in the recovery of many a person's health has been the first bottle of Paine's celery compound.

Mr. Pidgin said he used Paine's celery compound as a nerve tonic and laxative. He was not sick, only "tired" from press of business. Its use put him in good condition again. "I recommend it," he says, "to literary friends."

Weariness, lack of energy, and despondency are more a matter of nerves and brain than of the muscles. Paine's celery compound makes new, richly vitalized blood go briskly through the nerves, brain, and every important organ. There soon comes an end to tired, worn out feelings, loss of appetite and sleeplessness.

Thousands of men struggling under great responsibilities, anxious, overworked mothers and wives and shop girls who are forced to stand on their feet all day long, build up their strength and nervous energy with Paine's celery compound. It rids the system of the languor and lack of energy that follows a bloodless condition.

A New System.

The postal note and present form of domestic money orders will be abolished by the government on July 1st and a new system will go into effect on that date but any postal notes left in circulation after July 1st will be paid upon presentation.

Under the new system any amount from one cent to $100 may be sent by money order. Orders not exceeding $2.50 will cost three cents; those between $2.50 and $5 will cost five cents; $10, eight cents; $20, ten cents; and so on up to amounts between $75 and $100, which require a fee of thirty cents. If a drawee wishes to change an order, or cash it himself instead of sending it to the person in whose favor it was drawn he can get the money back, but not the fee that was paid. If a money order is lost it will be repaid by the post office department through a warrant on the expiration of a year. Officers now designated as postal note officers will under the new act become "limited money order officers" that is, officers authorized to issue money orders for sums not exceeding $5, but not to pay any money orders whatever.
